

Reasoning 2

Martin is finding pairs of values for the equation below.

$$a - b = 5.6$$

He says,

Both values must be a decimal because the answer is a decimal.

Is Martin correct? Explain why.