

The Loaves and Fishes

Big crowds followed Jesus wherever he went.

He and his disciples went across the lake on a boat.

But when they got to the other side,
another huge crowd was waiting.

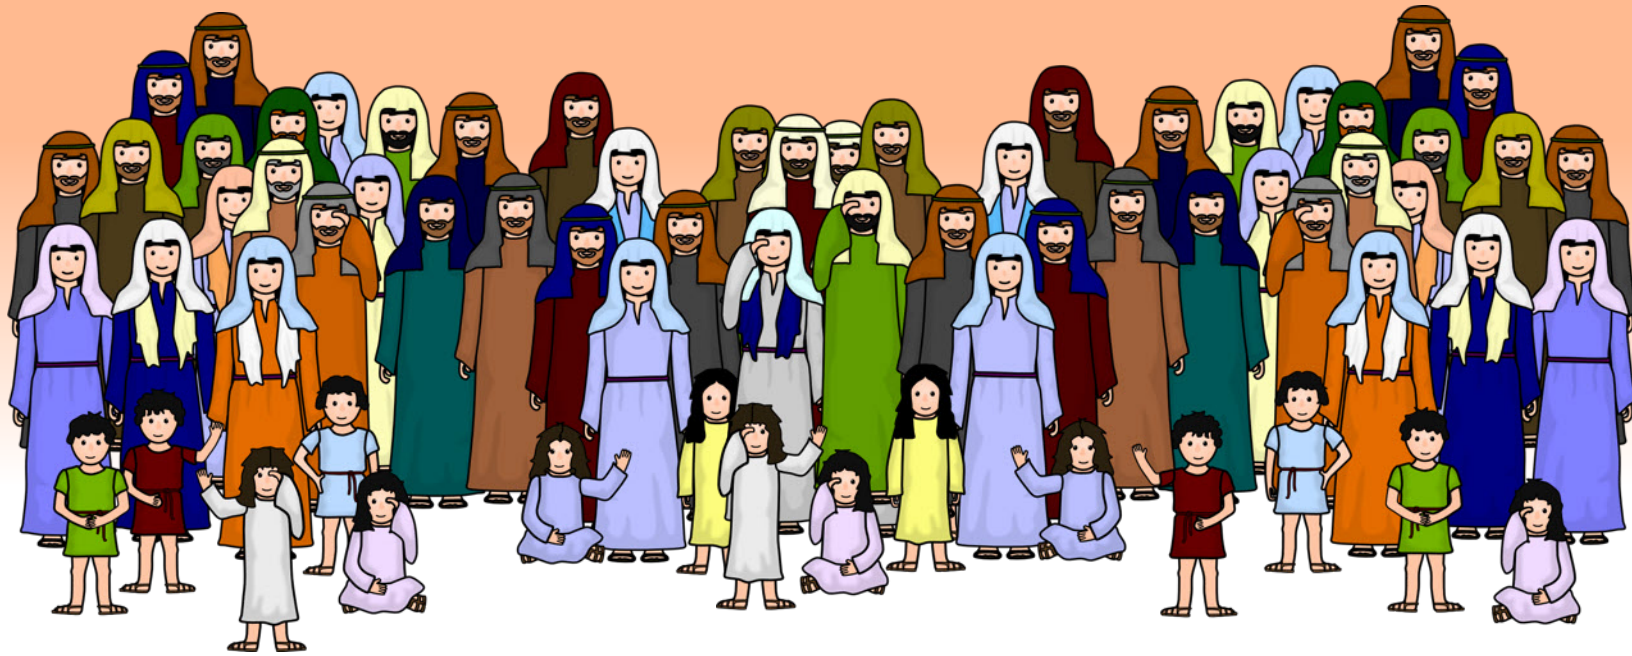

Jesus felt sorry for them and began teaching all about God.

When it was getting late, the crowd were feeling tired and hungry.

“You can give them food,”
said Jesus to his disciples.

But there were 5000 men with women and children too!
They didn't have enough food or money to feed them all.

There was a boy in the crowd
who had brought his own lunch.

There were five loaves
and two fishes.

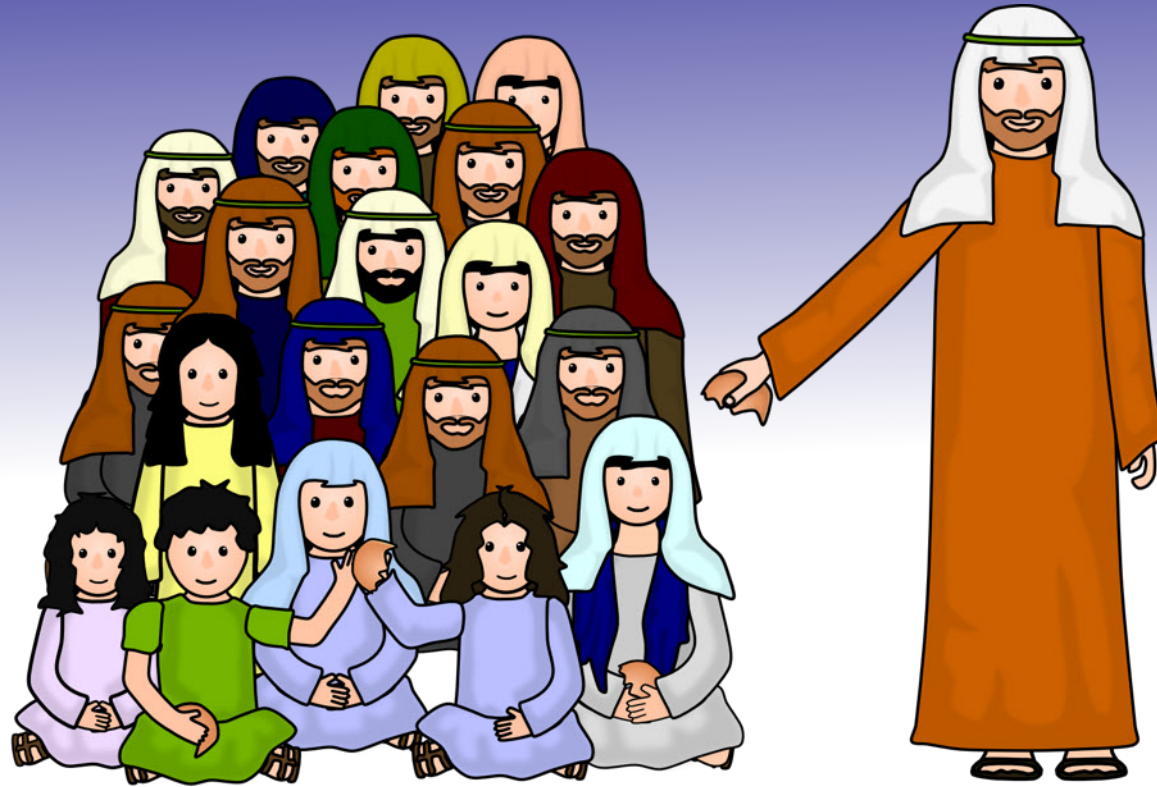

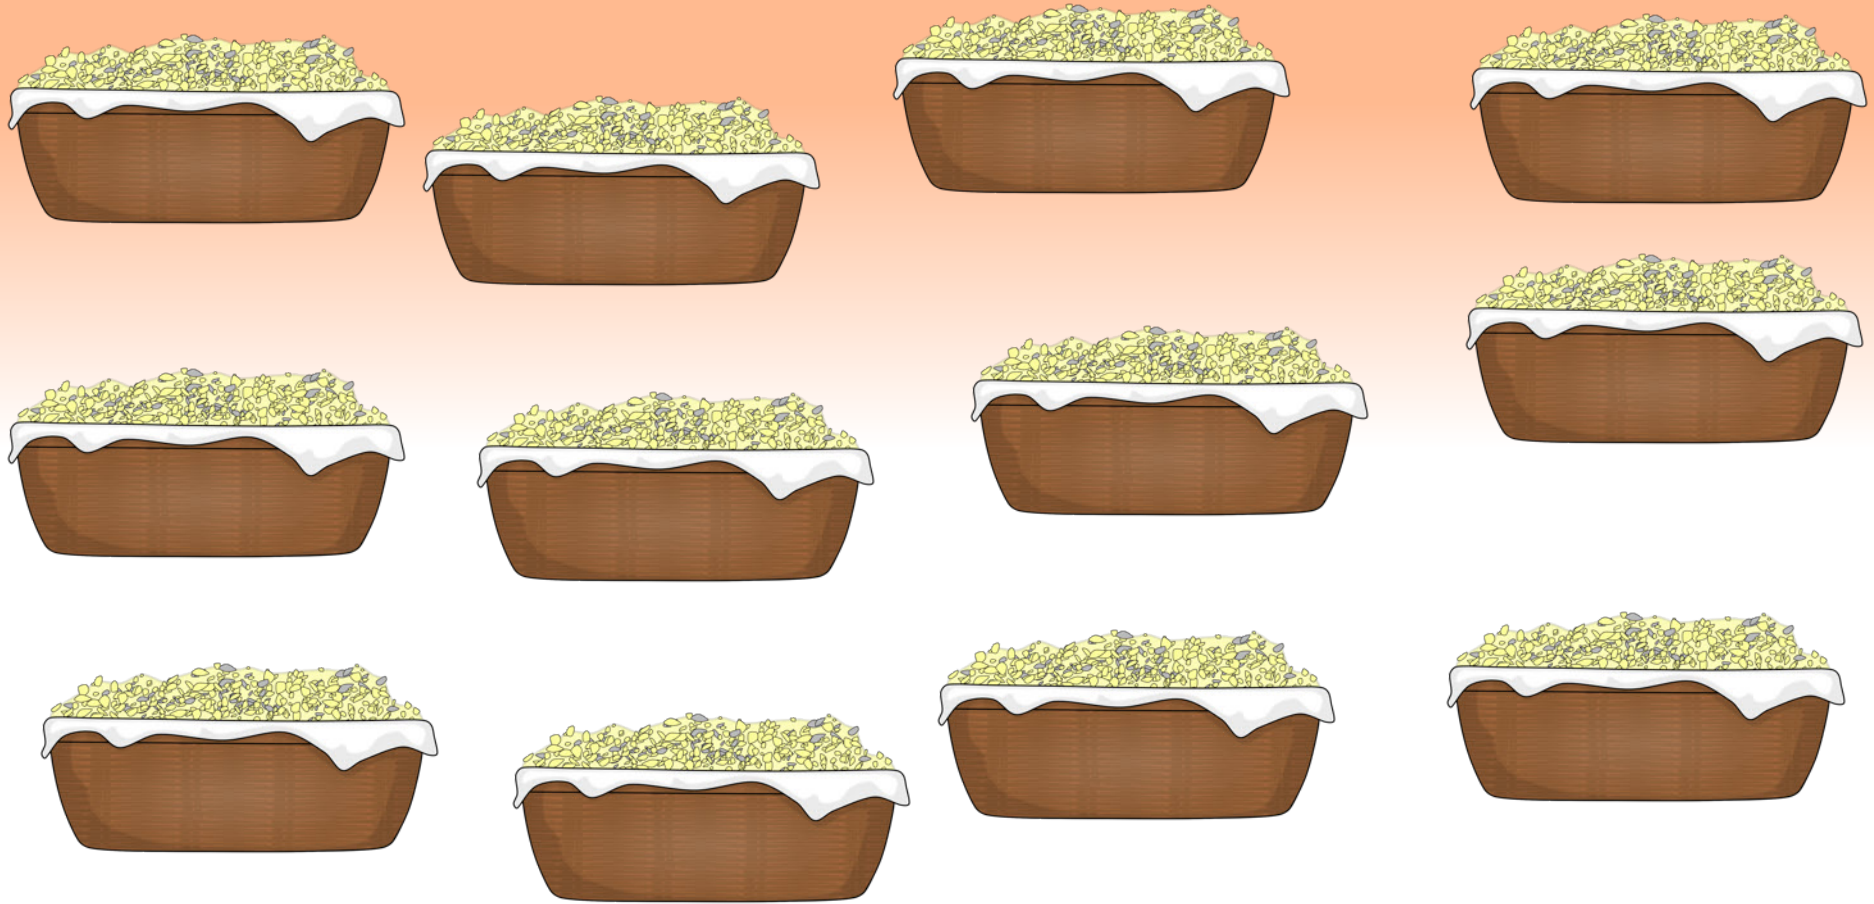

Jesus had the people
sit down in groups of 50 and 100.

Jesus took the loaves and gave thanks to God. Then he broke them and gave them to his disciples.

As the disciples gave out the bread,
it multiplied and made more bread.
The same happened with the fish.

After every single person was fed,
there were twelve baskets left!

The people were amazed and said,
“This man must be the Son of God!”
