

Giraffes Can't Dance

Comprehension

1. What kind of legs did Gerald have?
 - A. He had thick legs with straight knees.
 - B. He had bony legs with fat feet.
 - C. He had crooked legs with wide feet.
 - D. He had thin legs with crooked knees.

2. What was Gerald very good at doing?
 - A. He was good at standing still, and munching shoots off trees.
 - B. He was good at dancing when all alone.
 - C. He was good at reaching things in the trees for other animals.
 - D. He was good at singing music while the other animals danced.

3. Why was Gerald sad about the Jungle Dance?
 - A. He was sad because the lions were so much better at dancing.
 - B. He was sad because when it came to dancing, he was very bad.
 - C. He was sad because he did not win the contest.
 - D. He was sad because he was not invited.

4. What did the animals think about giraffes dancing?
 - A. They thought all giraffes danced well, except Gerald.
 - B. They didn't think giraffes had the right kind of feet to dance.
 - C. They didn't think giraffes could dance.
 - D. They thought giraffes danced well, including Gerald.

5. How did Gerald feel about what the other animals' said to him?
 - A. He was very excited that the animals liked his dancing. He danced all the way home.
 - B. He was happy that the animals let him dance, and couldn't wait for next year.
 - C. He thought they very wrong, and that he could dance great!
 - D. He thought they were right, and it made him feel sad and alone.

